

EU-Global News - 04 Sept 2012

2012-09-04 15:43:44 by webmaster

Commons ESM debate: EU bailout treaty does not trigger the 'referendum lock,' says William Hague Tebbit: 'If the Tories want to be re-elected they had best start to read the UKIP manifesto' Population still growing by 216,000 a year despite student visa cuts Millions face pension crisis ECB chief Draghi hints at bond purchases Germany readies markets for ECB disappointment Merkel tells her critics bailout countries 'deserve solidarity' German ruling on ESM bailout treaty and fiscal union on Sept 12 German FM confident that ESM and fiscal treaties will not be blocked by the constitutional court Spain injects capital into Bankia as Andalucia asks for a bailout Fears Rising, Spaniards Pull Out Their Cash and Get Out of Spain Nomura: "Spain Will Need Full-Blown Bailout" François Hollande 'will be forced to act more like Nicolas Sarkozy' French Socialists move to avert backbench revolt over fiscal treaty Bulgaria shelves euro membership plans Bulgarian, Polish ministers cast doubt on euro Moody's cuts EU outlook to negative on credit risks US companies brace for euro exit by Greece European Parliament's Brussels debating chamber closed because of faulty roof Commission could fine companies if they miss female board quota EU wants to sneak in a mini-ACTA by the backdoor The Big Swiss Faustian Bargain The gold price and the exponential growth of our problems 803 Years Of Global Inflation Apple Granted Patent To Disable Cameras According To Location