

The real struggle to leave the EU starts today - Gerard Batten MEP

14/11/2018 15:22 by webmaster

“We should stop asking the European Union how we’re going to leave, we should be telling them how we’re going to leave.”

Speaking today as Theresa May presents her Brexit plan to her cabinet UKIP leader Gerard Batten MEP has issued a rallying cry stating “the real struggle to leave the EU starts today”. He also labelled her deal a “complete betrayal of Brexit”.

Gerard Batten MEP and UKIP Leader stated:

“We are heading for a complete betrayal of Brexit. Mrs May has put something together that is not going to satisfy Remainers or Leavers. The deal will be worse than remaining in the European Union.”

“We should stop asking the European Union how we’re going to leave, we should be telling them how we’re going to leave. The real struggle to leave the EU starts today.”