Marie-Christine Arnautu

Proposal for a directive
Recital 1

Text proposed by the Commission

(1) The purpose of this Directive is to contribute to the proper functioning of the internal market by approximating laws, regulations and administrative provisions of the Member States, by eliminating barriers to the free movement of certain accessible products and services. This will increase the availability of accessible products and services on the internal market.

(3) The disparities between the laws and administrative measures adopted by the Member States in relation to accessibility of products and services for persons with functional limitations and persons with disabilities create barriers to the free movement of such products and services and distort effective competition in the internal market. Economic operators, in particular small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), are particularly affected by those barriers.

Or. en

Justification

Reference to “persons with functional limitations” in addition to the term “persons with disabilities” should be retained in order to illustrate that much wider part of the population will benefit from this Directive. Also when making the estimated costs and benefits analysis, it is key to take into account the whole population that benefit from accessible products and services.

Amendment

(12a) In the rail transport sector, the binding Directive 2016/797 on the interoperability of the EU rail system^{1a} and the Technical Specifications for Interoperability (PRM TSI)^{1b} explicitly refer to, and implement the accessibility requirements set out in Article 9 of the Convention. As a result, in the rail transport sector accessibility for persons with disabilities and persons with reduced mobility is regulated in this sector-specific legislation. In order to ensure consistency between the sector-specific legislation and the European Accessibility Act, any future revision of the PRM TSI should also take into account the accessibility requirements resulting from the European Accessibility Act.

^{1a} Directive (EU) 2016/797 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 May 2016 on the interoperability of the rail system within the European Union (OJ L 138, 26.5.2016, p. 44–101).

(22a) Certain elements of the accessibility requirements laid down by this Directive, particularly those set out in Annex I relating to the provision of information, are already covered by existing legislative acts of the Union in the area of transport. Those acts include Regulations (EC) Nos 1371/2007^{1a} and (EU) 1300/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council^{1b} and Commission Regulation (EU) No 454/2011^{1c} as regards rail transport; Regulation (EU) No 181/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council^{1d} as regards bus and coach transport; and Regulation (EU) No 1177/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council^{1e} as regards maritime transport. To ensure regulatory consistency and predictability for the economic operators covered by those acts, the relevant requirements under this Directive should be deemed to be complied with where the relevant parts of those acts are complied with. However, when the accessibility requirements are not covered, for example the requirement to make websites of airlines accessible, this Directive should apply.

^{1a} Regulation (EC) No 1371/2007 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2007 on rail passengers' rights and obligations (OJ L 315, 3.12.2007, p. 14).

^{1b} Regulation (EU) No 1300/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 November 2014 on the technical specifications for interoperability relating to accessibility of the Union's rail system for persons with disabilities and persons with reduced mobility (OJ L 356, 12.12.2014, p. 110).

^{1c} Commission Regulation (EU) No 454/2011 of 5 May 2011 on the technical specification for interoperability relating to the subsystem 'telematics applications for passenger services' of the trans-European rail system (OJ L 123, 12.5.2011, p. 11).

^{1d} Regulation (EU) No 181/2011 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 February 2011 concerning the rights of passengers in bus and coach transport and amending Regulation (EC) No 2006/2004 (OJ L 55, 28.2.2011, p. 1).

^{1e} Regulation (EU) No 1177/2010 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 November 2010 concerning the rights of passengers when travelling by sea and inland waterway and amending Regulation (EC) No 2006/2004 (OJ L 334, 17.12.2010, p. 1).

Or. es

Justification

It is not appropriate to cover with this Directive accessibility requirements which are already covered by other legislations. It would create only legal uncertainty and is not in line with the principle of Better regulation. However, when an aspect, such as airline websites, is not regulated in another Union act, this Directive will be applicable.

Amendment

(54) Since the objective of this Directive, namely, the elimination of barriers to the free movement of certain accessible products and services to contribute to the proper functioning of the internal market, cannot be sufficiently achieved by the Member States because it requires the harmonisation of different rules currently existing in their respective legal systems, but can rather, by reason of defining common accessibility requirements and rules for the functioning of the single market, be better achieved at Union level, the Union may adopt measures, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity as set out in Article 5 of the Treaty on European Union. In accordance with the principle of proportionality, as set out in that Article, this Directive does not go beyond what is necessary in order to achieve that objective,

Or. en

Justification

Public passenger transport services will have to comply with additional provisions ranging from accessible vehicles, facilities and build environment. It would result in unequal treatment between private and public transport services, the latter having to fulfil provisions of article 21 and Annex IV. It would moreover result in enormous additional costs.

- for sea and inland waterway transport, Regulation (EU) No 1177/2010
- for air transport, Regulation (EU) No 1107/2006.

Justification

Regulations governing the accessibility of the transport sector are already in force, and these should not be circumvented or undermined. The directive under consideration here should be seen as complementing existing legislation, as there would otherwise be legal uncertainty.

- 2. Without prejudice to the requirements relating to built environment set in other binding Union regulations, Member States are encouraged to require that built environment, including transport infrastructure used by passengers, in particular the transport infrastructure of the trans - European transport network complies with the accessibility requirements of Annex I.

Or. en

Justification

The Commission proposal does not make a choice between including built environment or not. It is proposed to remove this enabling clause. Member States will still be able to apply this directive to built environment if they wish so. A new paragraph has been introduced in article 28 to require the Commission within two years to report on a possible inclusion.

functional limitation and persons with disabilities.

Or. en

Justification

Reference to “persons with functional limitations” in addition to the term “persons with disabilities” should be retained in order to illustrate that much wider part of the population will benefit from this Directive. Amendment

(ba) the lifetime of the machines that are necessary for the provision of a service.

Or. de

Justification

If, for example, a ticket machine with a lifetime of more than 10 years is in working order and represents a large investment by an economic operator, it is unreasonable to require the operator to replace it immediately after the date of application of the directive. The assessment of what constitutes a disproportionate burden should therefore take into account the lifetime of the machines, all the more so as the scope of the directive is limited to new products and services.

Amendment 202
Marie-Christine Arnautu

Proposal for a directive
Article 19 – paragraph 1 – subparagraph 1

Text proposed by the Commission

Where the market surveillance authorities of one Member State have taken action pursuant to Article 20 of Regulation (EC) No 765/2008, or where they have sufficient reason to believe that a product covered by this Directive presents a risk related to accessibility aspects covered by this Directive, they shall carry out an evaluation in relation to the product concerned covering all the requirements laid down in this Directive. The relevant economic operators shall fully cooperate with the market surveillance authorities.

Amendment

Where the market surveillance authorities of one Member State have taken action pursuant to Article 20 of Regulation (EC) No 765/2008, or where they have sufficient reason to believe that a product covered by this Recommendation presents a risk related to accessibility aspects covered by this Recommendation, they shall carry out an evaluation in relation to the product concerned covering all the requirements laid down in this Recommendation. Gesine Meissner

Proposal for a directive
Article 21 – paragraph 1 – point c

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(c) When establishing the accessibility requirements related to social and quality criteria established by competent authorities in tender procedures for public passenger transport services by rail and by road under Regulation (EC) No 1370/2007; deleted

Or. en

Justification

Public passenger transport services will have to comply with additional provisions ranging from accessible vehicles, facilities and build environment. It would result in unequal treatment between private and public transport services, the latter having to fulfil provisions of article 21 and Annex IV. It would moreover result in enormous additional costs.

Amendment 207
Dieter-Lebrecht Koch, Sabine Verheyen

Proposal for a directive
Article 21 – paragraph 1 – point c

(c) In tender procedures for public passenger transport services by rail and by road under Regulation (EC) No 1370/2007 where the competent authorities lay down accessibility requirements;

Or. de

Justification

Competent authorities are free to choose whether compliance with accessibility requirements should be an award criterion or not. If they do make them a condition, however, the criteria must be consistent with the accessibility requirements laid down in the directive.

Proposal for a directive

Article 22 – paragraph 1 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

1a. A disproportionate burden exists if a product or service is supposed to be replaced or modified, despite being still in use and fully functioning.

Or. en

Justification

It is vital to ensure that existing products and services can be used in the future since there would not be sufficient means for the costs of modifying and replacing existing infrastructure and products.

Proposal for a directive
Article 22 – paragraph 2 – point b

Text proposed by the Commission

(b) the estimated costs and benefits for the competent authorities concerned in relation to the estimated benefit for persons with disabilities, taking into account the frequency and duration of use of the specific product or service;

Amendment

(b) the estimated costs and benefits for the competent authorities concerned in relation to the estimated benefit for persons with functional limitations and persons with disabilities, taking into account the frequency and duration of use of the specific product or service;

Or. en

Justification

Reference to “persons with functional limitations” in addition to the term “persons with disabilities” should be retained in order to illustrate that much wider part of the population will benefit from this Directive. Also when making the estimated costs and benefits analysis, it is key to take into account the whole population that benefit from accessible products and services.

Amendment 269
Dieter-Lebrecht Koch, Sabine Verheyen

Proposal for a directive
Annex I – section V – part B – point a a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

- (aa) As a minimum, the content of websites relating to the following operations must comply with the requirements under (a):
- (i) accessing timetables, special reduced fares and all-network tickets, as well as details of reservation costs and ticket prices;
 - (ii) booking or changing a booking or reservation including all transport amenities;
 - (iii) checking in;
 - (iv) accessing a personal travel itinerary;
 - (v) accessing the status of a flight;
 - (vi) accessing a personal customer account;
 - (vii) accessing carrier contact information;
 - (viii) accessing information on transport assistance available.

Or. de

Justification

This amendment draws on a list of ‘seven core elements’ of websites drawn up by the Department of Transportation for the USA (‘Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Disability in Air Travel: Accessibility of Web Sites and Automated Kiosks at U.S. Airports (DOT–OST–2011–0177).

Annex I – section V – part B – point a b (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(ab) Third-party content that is neither funded nor developed by, nor under the control of, the provider concerned shall be exempt from the requirements laid down in (a).

Or. de

Justification

In line with Directive (EU) 2016/2102 on the accessibility of the websites and mobile applications of public sector bodies, third-party content that is not under the control of the website provider need not comply with the accessibility requirements.
