

Eurojust at work in 2014

Eurojust's core business is to assist the competent authorities of EU Member States when they deal with serious cross-border organised crime.

1 Judicial coordination meetings

Bringing together judicial and law enforcement authorities from Member States and third States.

2 Joint investigation teams (JITs)

Carrying out criminal investigations in one or more of the involved countries.

24/7 availability

Execution of European Arrest Warrants

266 cases

14.5% of all cases registered

3 Coordination centres

Coordination centres enable coordination and real-time transmission of information in serious cross-border crimes among national authorities during action days.

10 Eurojust coordination centres were held in 2014

Gathering evidence correctly is important for successful future court proceedings

